The Flash (4-6-3, 15 points) currently sit two points and two spots ahead of the Thorns (3-6-4, 13 points) on the table as the Flash currently hold sixth place and the Thorns are in eighth position.

GAME #13: DASH 1, FLASH 0

The Western New York Flash outshot the Houston Dash 22-14 on Saturday night but were unable to figure out goalkeeper Erin McLeod as the Dash took at 1-0 decision at Sahlen's Stadium.

Carli Lloyd scored the game's lone goal in the 49th minute, heading in a cross from defender Meghan Klingenberg.

Michelle Heyman and Elizabeth Eddy both had strong scoring chances in the first half, but McLeod was able to keep the ball out of the net.

In the second, the Flash increased the offensive attack and came close to finding the equalizer in stoppage time. Making her NWSL debut in the 63rd minute, Lady Andrade dribbled herself open to test McLeod in the upper 90.

Samantha Mewis had a close-range shot in the dying seconds, but a kick-save kept it out.

2015 SCHEDULE & RESULTS

NEWS & NOTES...

DRIBBLING DEBUTANTS Saturday's match against Houston saw the debut of the Flash's two newest players, as Halimatu Ayinde and Lady Andrade both saw their first NWSL action. Ayinde got the start, playing 79 minutes in the midfield. Andrade, a Colombian international, entered the match in the 63rd minute and was able to nearly find the equalizer for the Flash shortly after her entrance.

SEASON-HIGH SHOOTERS The Flash offense continues to show brilliance but was unable to find the net despite posting a season high 22 shots in its last match. The total was just one shot shy of the franchise's all-time high, 23 shots against the Washington Spirit on July 31, 2013. The Flash won that game 3-0.

MINUTE[WO]MEN Flash midfielder Becky Edwards and Samantha Mewis are two of just 11 players who have featured in every possible minute this season. The Flash have played 13 games thus far, with Mewis and Edwards both seeing all 90 minutes in each of those contests.

THE AUSSIE AFFECT Just two games into her NWSL career, Australian international Michelle Heyman has made an immediate impact for the Flash front line. Heyman, who scored a goal in her debut and earned Week 14 Player of the Week honors, has totaled eight shots in her two games. The forward came close to ending Erin McLeod's bid for a shutout on Saturday but was unable to beat the keeper.

SPREADING THE SCORING The Western New York Flash have totaled 11 different goal scorers thus far, the highest in the NWSL. Rookies Samantha Mewis and Lynn Williams both have three goals and the team has a total of five multiple goal scorers.

Portland has seen goals from five different players, with Allie Long leading the club with five on the year.

ROSE CITY RETURNERS The Western New York Flash will be hosting familiar faces on Wednesday nights, as multiple former Flash players will be back at Sahlen's Stadium.

Former Flash captain McCall Zerboni will be back in Rochester for the first time since being traded to Portland in November, along with defender Kat Williamson. The pair was sent to PDX in exchange for Amber Brooks, who ultimately was dealt to Seattle.

Canada standout Christine Sinclair will also be back in at the home of her former club, as Sinc was a member of the Flash's 2011 WPS Championship winning team.

CHRISTMAS IN JULY Wednesday's game will be Christmas in July as the Flash are featuring multiple promotions throughout the match. The team will be giving away Christmas koozies to the first 1,000 fans through Gate D and will have multiple deals at the Flash Shack. In addition, "Santa" will be delivering presents throughout the match to lucky Flash fans!

NEXT GAME The Flash will play their third game in eight days when it travels to face Sky Blue FC on Saturday evening. The two teams met previously on July 19 when the Flash drew 3-3 with the New Jersey team at Sahlen's Stadium.
