GAME PREVIEW

The Western New York Flash will conclude the 2015 season at home on Friday night, with a battle with 2013 NWSL Champion Portland Thorns FC.

The Flash will be looking for its first home win against the Thorns, as the club has only beaten Portland once all-time - a decisive 5-0 decision on June 7, 2014 in Portland.

The two teams have met twice already this season, with the Thorns coming away with shutout victories on both occasions.

Neither the Flash nor Portland, who met in the 2013 NWSL Championship match, have qualified for the postseason as Portland currently sits in sixth place while the Flash are in eighth.

PREVIOUS GAME REVIEW

GAME #19: CHICAGO 2, FLASH 0

The Western New York Flash hosted its annual Pink game on Saturday night against the Chicago Red Stars in front of 3,525 fans at Sahlen's Stadium.

The Flash (5-9-5, 20 points), who were sporting limited-edition pink jerseys, were shutout 2-0 by the Red Stars after goals from Christen Press and Jen Hoy. It was the ninth time the Flash have been held without a goal this season.

Press, a member of the U.S. Women's National Team, got the visitors on the board on an individual effort in the first half.

Hoy added an insurance goal in the second half, with the assist coming on an outside of the foot pass from Press.

Flash defender Kristen Edmonds was dangerous in the attacking end, with two near goals after forcing Michelle Dalton into difficult diving saves. Ten minutes in, forward Michelle Heyman was open after a cross from Edmonds, but she miss timed the header and Dalton was able to grab the ball.

2015 SCHEDULE & RESULTS

NEWS & NOTES...

MASTERS OF THE MINUTES Flash members Becky Edwards and Jaelene Hinkle have played all 90 minutes of each match this season, and are one game away from completing an entire campaign without a substitute. So far, just four players have tallied each minute for the full, 2015 season: Leigh Ann Robinson and Amy LePeilbet from Kansas City and Kassey Kallman and Mollie Pathman from Boston.

If Hinkle plays all 90 minutes Friday, she will become the first Flash rookie to play every minute of a season in the NWSL era.

ASSISTANT ANDRACKI With Flash assistant coach Daniel Clitnovici away for a family engagement, head coach Aaran Lines has phoned a friend to assist on the sidelines Friday. That friend is former Rochester Rhinos goalkeeper Billy Andracki, who was a teammate of Thorns assistant coach Scott Vallow from 2000-2002. Both Andracki and Vallow were goalkeepers for the USL club.

LOOKING FOR THE GOALS Western New York will be looking to end the season on a high note and search for it's first goal at home since July 19 when the Flash drew Sky Blue FC 3-3. Western New York went the entire month of August and scored just one goal in a 1-1 draw at Washington.

SHUTOUT STREAK The Flash have been shutout a total of nine times this season, with three coming during the month of August. At home, the Flash have been shutout four times, including its last three home matches.

FORMER FLASH FACES Many members of the Portland Thorns will be familiar to Flash fans, as many of them have sported Flash uniforms at one point or another in their career. Star forwards Alex Morgan and Christine Sinclair were both members of the Flash's 2011 WPS Championship winning team, along with midfielder McCall Zerboni who played for the Flash up until last season. Zerboni, the team's captain in both 2012 and 2013, was traded to Portland during the offseason for Amber Brooks.

The Thorns captain, Kat Williamson, was also involved in that trade as she spent the 2014 season as a member of the Flash after starting her career with Portland in 2013.

WILLIAMS, FIELDS OUT The Western New York Flash will be down two forwards for the remainder of the 2015 season, as both Lynn Williams and Jamia Fields have been ruled out for the final two matches. Fields will miss the games with a sports hernia, while Williams will be undergoing microfracture knee surgery.
